Using `biblatex` you can display a bibliography divided into sections, depending on citation type. Let's cite! Einstein's journal paper [einstein] and Dirac's book [dirac] are physics-related items. Next, The L^AT_EX Companion book [latexcompanion], Donald Knuth's website [knuthwebsite], The Comprehensive TeX Archive Network (CTAN) [ctan] are L^AT_EX-related items; but the others, Donald Knuth's items, [knuth-fa; knuth-acp] are dedicated to programming.
